WATSON APPEALS FOR VICTORY LOAN

United States Senator Opens Loan Campaign in This County With an Address This Afternoon.

PRaises Work of Soldiers

Interesting Program to Be Given at Christian Church Tonight—
—Workers to Meet.

United States Senator James E. Watson made a strong appeal for the success of the Victory Liberty loan in an eloquent address at the Central Christian church this afternoon. He pointed out in a forceful manner that the war has been won but that the United States will not complete its part until all the debts are paid and the Army of Occupation is brought safely home again.

The meeting this afternoon was the opening gun of the Jackson county Victory loan campaign. Senator Watson was introduced by L. C. Griffiths, chairman of the local loan organization, who urged the people to support the government at this hour by buying as many bonds as they can. He pointed to the favorable terms that are offered by the treasury department.

Senator Watson lauded Jackson county for the exceptional record that it has made in the former Liberty loan and War saving stamps campaigns. He recalled that Jackson was the first county in the southern Indiana district of the Eighth federal district to meet its apportionment in the Fourth Liberty loan campaign. He said that the boys had done their part in the trenches and it much easier for those at home to do their part in a financial way.

Many visitors were here for the program today. Senator Watson arrived here at 1 o'clock and was taken to the home of Mr. Griffiths where he had luncheon.

Immediately after the meeting this afternoon a conference of county workers was scheduled. Mr. Griffiths was to address the session.

Thomas M. Honan, John M. Lewis, Lieutenant Taylor and Chaplain J. B. Ferguson are scheduled to address tonight at the Christian church. The Seymour high school orchestra furnished music this afternoon and the Seymour orchestra will play tonight. The Seymour concert band gave a program on the streets between 1 and 2 o'clock.

Practically every store in the city was decorated for the celebration. Among the visitors here today were many returned soldiers, marines and sailors.

REVOLVER ACCIDENTALLY DISCHARGED—GIRL WOUNDED

Miss Hazel Leslie Injured in Left Leg Earl Burckdall, Nephew, Was Cleaning Pistol.

Miss Hazel Leslie, High street, was accidentally shot in the left leg Friday night when a pistol which Earl Burckdall, her nephew, was cleaning was discharged. He had removed the cartridges from a .38-caliber revolver and after it had been cleaned and oiled he started to replace them. The gun was discharged and the bullet struck the leg of a table going completely through it. Miss Leslie was sitting in line with the bullet which hit her on the left leg just above the knee. Her condition is not serious, but she is not able to walk.

EASTER SERVICES AT THE CHURCHES

Every Congregation in The City Prepares Special Programs For Tomorrow.

Every church in Seymour has prepared special services for tomorrow and it is expected that Easter Sunday will be one of the biggest church-going days of the entire year. As usual Easter music will be a feature at all the services and in some of the churches special musical programs for the Sunday night services have been arranged. Easter is of especial significance to the various Sunday schools which will emphasize the meaning of the great day of the Christian church calendar in word and song.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR SPEEDY DRIVE

Jackson County Expected to Secure Loan Quota of $482,400 Before 9 O'clock Monday Night.

WORKERS HOLD CONFERENCE

Some of The Districts Have Already Obtained Apportionments Assigned to Them.

All arrangements have been completed by the Jackson county Victory loan organization for securing the county's quota of $482,400 in a whirlwind campaign to be concluded before 9 o'clock Monday night. Preparations for the drive have been going forward for the last ten days and the reports from the various school districts indicate that the apportionments will be quickly subscribed. Some of the districts have already obtained their allotments and are making inquiry concerning the announcement that there will be no oversubscription. It is explained, in answer to this question, that each district is expected to sell as many bonds as possible and the treasury department announcement means that when the total apportionment for the entire nation is subscribed the loan will be closed.

In response to the announcement of W. G. Masters, Jackson township chairman, that a meeting would be held of the local workers at the city building last night, every district was represented by one or more workers. The council chamber was filled and the enthusiasm that was manifested was indicative of the spirit of earnestness with which the drive will be waged. Two or three of the township districts reported that they had already sold their apportionments and a number of others stated that they would have their quotas complete before Monday noon. The district chairmen were instructed to report the result of the drive in their domains not later than 9 o'clock Monday night as the county organization desires to make a report to the state headquarters at that hour. It is expected that an "over the top" message will be filed.

The short maturity date of the Victory notes which will be issued in this campaign appeals to small investors. The other Liberty bonds extend over a period of from ten to twenty years while the Victory notes will mature in four or five years and the government retains the option to redeem them within three years if it so desires. The interest rate is fixed at three and three-quarters percent, which is slightly higher than the other loan terms. The bonds are free from normal tax and so far as the average buyer is concerned they are tax exempt.

The farmers of the county are showing a keen interest in the loan campaign and their investments will be large, according to the reports reaching the county loan headquarters. One man inquired at a local bank this morning about the oversubscription feature of the loan and said that he intended to subscribe himself for more than the quota assigned to his district and wanted to

RELIANCE COMPANY ORDERS $2,500 WORTH OF BONDS

Shirt Manufacturing Company Has Been Heavy Purchaser in All Bond Sales.

Nathan Kaufman received a message from the president of the Reliance Shirt Manufacturing Company today stating that the company would purchase $2,500 worth of the bonds to be sold by the Jackson county organization. The Reliance Company expected to purchase bonds in all cities where it has factories in operation.

The manufacturing company has been a heavy purchaser in all of the Liberty Bond sales in the past and has carried out the plan of dividing their purchases among the different counties where their plants are located.

BOARD OF REVIEW TO MAKE CHANGES

Township Assessor is Busy With Book Work and Can Make No More Readjustments.

TRANSFERRING THE RECORDS

Lists of Appraisements to be Sent Direct to State Tax Board at Indianapolis This Year.

E. S. Himbaugh, assessor in Jackson township, has announced that because of the large volume of book work which must be completed by his office during the next two or three weeks he will be unable to make any further readjustments of appraisements and advises property owners who are not satisfied with their assessments that they may carry their objections to the county board of equalization when it meets at the court house the first of June. This board will be in session for sixty days and will hear any complaints of property owners and will make changes where it is shown conclusively that errors have been made.

Mr. Himbaugh has received a large number of complaints relative to the amount of the appraisements of real estate in the city and township and where the property owners were able to show that an error had been made he has the property re-appraised and the proper value placed on it according to the instructions of the state tax board. Because of the new law many objections have been made, but some of the property owners have been satisfied with the work of the appraisements when they were convinced that they were endeavoring to list all property on the same basis.

In some cases, however, Mr. Himbaugh stated, errors have been made and he has followed the practice of making such changes when proof was presented. In the future, he said, he will be so busy with the clerical work in connection with the office that he will be unable to make readjustments and

WAR VETERANS WILL ORGANIZE

State Meeting for Purpose of Perfecting Organization to be Held April 24.

LOCAL SOLDIERS INTERESTED

Marion County Body Wants Every County in Indiana Represented at Convention.

Soldiers, sailors and marines, who saw service for Uncle Sam during the great war and are now at home again in Indiana are looking with active enthusiasm toward the state convention of returned service men which has been called by the World War Veterans of Marion County to be held in Indianapolis Thursday, April 24. The first business session will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning in the House of Representatives, Indiana State House. Jackson county soldiers are interested in the organization plan and several are planning to attend the meeting.

Officers of the Marion county veterans organization urge strongly that each county organization throughout the state be represented at the state convention in Indianapolis April 24 by at least two able delegates. In counties where no organization exists now discharged service men are asked to busy themselves immediately toward the perfection of a county organization in order to have representation at the state convention. No effort has been made here to organize the veterans of the late war, but it is regarded probable that such a step will be taken soon.

JAPANESE PRESS OPPOSES ACTION OF PARIS CONGRESS

Declares That Principles of Humanity Underlying Peace League Are Falsehoods.

By United Press.

Tokio, April 19—Declaring Japan should secede from the league of nations, and that the principles of humanity underlying the league are falsehoods, the Japanese press today with striking unanimity attacked Great Britain and demanded a Monroe doctrine for the Orient.

The outburst was occasioned by publication of news from Paris that the league of nations had rejected the Japanese amendment providing for the principle of equality of nations.

ITALIAN CLAIMS ARE UNSETTLED

Premier Orlando Expected to Demand Acceptance of Annexationist Program.

SECRECY ABOUT DECISION

Japanese Seeking Ratification of Concessions in Shantung Peninsula.

By United Press.

Paris, April 19—With the Italian situation still in a critical stage—so far as available information is concerned—the "big four" was expected to be confronted today with the additional problem of adjusting Japanese territorial claims in China.

Premier Orlando was scheduled to present a demand for immediate acceptance of the annexationist program granted Italy under the pact of London, at yesterday's session of the "big four." In some quarters it was even believed he would threaten to wreck the entire peace settlement by refusing to sign the treaty and holding the other powers to their agreement not to make a separate peace, unless Italy's aspirations were recognized.

What transpired in the situation remained a mystery, surrounded with the deepest secrecy. In unofficial sources it was learned the Italian question was discussed today. This was unconfirmed.

Japanese are seeking, principally, ratification of their concessions in the Shantung peninsula and retention of Kiaochow which they seized from the Germans. The Chinese are bitterly opposed to Japan's claims and it is understood the majority of the peace delegates are inclined to favor the Chinese.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY FRANCHISE LEAGUE

Mrs. Edward P. Elsner, Seymour, is Elected President of the Fourth District.

Mrs. Edward P. Elsner, of this city, was elected president of the Fourth district branch of the Woman's Franchise League of Indiana, at the annual convention which was held at North Vernon today. Mrs. H. Lett, also of Seymour, was elected chairman of the nominations committee, and Mrs. O. O. Swails, of this city, was assigned to a place on the resolutions committee.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. David A. Kochenour, of Browns-town, who was appointed district chairman after the organization was completed.

Other district officers elected were: Mrs. H. O. Long, North Vernon, district chairman; Mrs. Ella J. McMullen, Aurora, vice-chairman; Mrs. William Loftus, North Vernon, secretary.

Resolution adopted by the convention contained a section expressing appreciation of the stand that has been taken by Congressman John S. Benham in favor of woman suffrage. The convention asked for his continued support. The League of Nations was also endorsed in the resolutions.

FEDERAL AGENTS CONTINUE PROBE

Other Residents at Muncie May Be Implicated in Alleged Bogus Land Deals.

CHURCH WORKERS VICTIMS

Cleveland Man Causes Arrest of Proprietor of the Grand Hotel.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, April 19—Federal authorities today were led to believe that other permanent residents of Muncie are implicated in the alleged fake land deals and betting rings uncovered in that city a few days ago with the arrest of several men on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

One of the alleged victims of the gang came here today from Cleveland and told the police that as soon as he was swindled out of $10,000 he returned to his home in Cleveland and swore out a warrant for the arrest of the five Muncie men who he said, "pulled the wool over my eyes." That was two months ago, he added, and the warrants have never been acted upon by W. A. McElvaine chief of police of Muncie, to whom they were sent. He said the police chief told him the men named in the warrants had "not been around" since last February at which time the land deals were consummated. The Ohioian said all the men for whom the warrants were issued had been in Muncie continuously since that time.

There's the man that got my $3,000," the Cleveland man said pointing to Chauncey Stillson, proprietor of the Grand Hotel in Muncie, who surrendered to United States marshals today as an accomplice of the gang. The Ohio man asserted he had lost an additional $7,000.

The Grand hotel was said to have been the headquarters of the gang which fleeced money at $10,000 a throw from persons of wealth and affluence, even Sunday School workers and school officials in bogus land deals and "fixed" wrestled matches.

STRIKE OF TELEGRAPHERS IN BOSTON THREATENED

Allied Workers Hope to Assist Telephone Operators to Secure Demands.

By United Press.

Boston, April 19—A strike of more than eight thousand commercial telegraph operators in New England may be called early next week if the strike of 20,000 New England telephone operators is not settled within a few days, according to officials here today.

William Conroy, chairman of the executive board of the Boston commercial telegraphers union, has telegraphed to the international union at Chicago asking sanction of the strike in New England. He asserted that telegraphers here are handling "business usually carried on by the telephone and that in this way they are providing strike breakers."

Mayor Andrew J. Peters, of Boston, who was in conference with Postmaster General Burleson in Washington yesterday, met a committee of the striking telephone workers today and in this meeting both sides saw a ray of hope looking to a settlement of the strike.

Deserted Submarine Flying German Flag Found.

By United Press.

Bologne, April 19—A steam trawler Saint Joachin found a German submarine flying the imperial insignia flating in the open sea, twenty miles south of the English coast last night. The crew of the trawler waited until dawn and then boarded the U-boat. They found the craft deserted and unarmed, but intact. She was identified as the U-136, one of the latest models. The U-boat was towed into port and a report made to the navy authorities.

COAL DUST LODGED IN MINER'S LUNGS

Mr. Bunn tells how his cough was conquered and health restored.

"I contracted a bad cough in November, 1916. I was working in a coal mine and the doctors said the coal dust had settled in my lungs. I kept getting worse, couldn't lie down on my right side, coughed so I couldn't sleep and had constant pain in my right lung and under my shoulder blades. I coughed so hard the blood would spurt out of my nose. I soon lost 30 pounds. Finally the doctors had me change climate and I went to the Cumberland Mountains and lived out doors, but didn't improve.

"Then I came back home and started on Milks Emulsion. Thank God I did, as it did me a lot of good right from the start, loosening up the coal dust that had filled my right lung. In a few weeks my lungs were free from coal dust. I could sleep at night like a baby, had an excellent appetite and my cough left me entirely. I gained back 30 pounds in weight and went back to work in the mines completely restored to health. I am working every day and feel as good as I ever did in my life."—G. H. Bunn, 6th Ave. & No. 13th St., Terre Haute, Ind.

Thousands of victims of dust filled air, in mines and factories, develop the same trouble that Mr. Bunn had. Milks Emulsion costs nothing to try, so why not at least try it? It is certain to be a help, and it may do as much for you as it did for Mr. Bunn.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physies. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down, nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price, five and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by C. E. Loertz.

FOCH URGES DOUBLE LOCK AGAINST THE GERMANS

Predicts Another Assault in Fifty Years, If Proper Guard is Not Established.

By United Press.

London, April 19—Marshal Foch in an interview predicted that fifty years hence, the Germans, if given the opportunity, will make another assault on France and Great Britain. "Now that we have reached the Rhine we must stay there," Foch is quoted as saying. "It is our only safety. We must have it as a barrier and we must double lock the door."

"Remember those seventy million Germans will always be a menace to us. They are people both envious and war like. Their natural characteristics have not been changed by the events of the last four years. Fifty years hence they will be what they are today. The next time the Germans will make no mistake. They will break through northern France and seize the channel ports as a base of operations against England."

Perhaps you don't realize there are pink pieces of music, red rags, violet jazz, and blue melodies.

Those who know best about music say so; and undoubtedly we have heard topical songs with a dash of lavender.

Color crops out everywhere. When Goodrich brought forth Black Tread rubber, the color caught; and soon a lot of tires were singing the black song in treads.

Of course it is quality, not color, that makes Goodrich treads outwear others.

The distinctive coloring of Silvertown Cord Tires, and their graceful modeling make them much sought by motorists to dress smart cars.

But Goodrich would make them ugly as an old shoe if ugliness would add another mile to their durability.

WAR VETERANS

WILL ORGANIZE

the state have long felt the need for the organization of a state association of veterans of the world war at the earliest possible date. Calls have been coming to the Marion county association from all corners of the state urging that the time is ripe for the consummation of a state organization, and asking that the Marion county organization take the responsibility of calling the state convention. They have decided to do this and have called a state convention for April 24.

The plans call for an all day business session at which officers for the state association will be elected and a temporary organization completed, pending affiliation with a national organization of veterans of the world war. Men who have been active in the organization of returned service men in Indiana say it is imperative that a state organization be completed at once in order that Indiana may be ably represented at the national caucus of world war veterans called by Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., at St. Louis, May 8, 9, and 10th, for the purpose of completing a national organization of veterans of the world war.

Although no names have been mentioned it is probable that Maj. Gen. Omar Bundy, the illustrious Hoosier, who has been named by some critics, the real hero of Chateau-Thierry, will be the first president of the Indiana state organization of veterans of the world war, if his duties as commander of Camp Lee, Va., will permit his acceptance of the honor. In any event he will be named an honorary officer of the organization pending his retirement to private life.

THE VICTORY LOAN

All indications today point to a speedy completion of Jackson county's part in the Victory loan in the drive to be waged Monday. Some of the districts in the county have already subscribed their apportionments. Almost all of the workers have stated that their districts will not fail in this campaign.

The loan from the business standpoint is the most attractive that has been offered to the public. Small investors are pleased with the shorter maturity date and the higher rate of interest. These bonds are free from normal taxes and so far as the average investor is concerned are free from all taxes. The subscriptions will also be made because the public feels it is its duty to "finish the job." America threw her forces into the war at the most critical time and won a great victory. We must now get our soldiers back home. This will require money and the public must furnish it.

Jackson county people will not hesitate or falter at this date. We have maintained a splendid war work record which cannot be marred in this the last great popular loan subscription.

asks property owners to take their complaints before the board of review. Under the new law all records must be shipped direct to Indianapolis where they will be inspected by the state tax board. In the past they were sent to the county assessor but this year the state tax board will inspect the records to see if its instructions have been carried out.

There is a vast amount of detail work to be done in the preparation of the final records. The descriptions of property and the names of the owners are written in large books at Brownstown and sent to the county assessor who sets opposite the names the appraisement of the described property as taken from the slips filed by the assessors. In some instances wrong descriptions have been given and these must be changed. In a few cases the deputy assessors have been incorrectly informed as to the owner of property and these names are also verified before the official record is made.

Mr. Himebaugh has tried to accommodate all property owners who felt that their assessments were not correct, and would like to continue the practice he has followed in the past, he said, but on account of the clerical work developing upon him from this time he will be unable to hear objections. He assures property owners, however, that their objections will be given just consideration by the board of review.

DESERTER IS CAUGHT
BY NIGHT POLICE

Soldier Had Escaped from Fort Benjamin Harrison Hospital.

An army officer from the Fort Benjamin Harrison hospital is expected to arrive here late this afternoon to return Fred James, a soldier to that institution which he left several days ago without permission. James was picked up by the police in this city Friday night at the Baltimore & Ohio passenger station. James had intended to board the westbound train due here about midnight but his plans were frustrated by the local police.

According to James, he was drafted at Pittsburg, Pa., about a year ago. He said he registered under the name of Frank James but that after getting into the service he went through proper channels to have his right name which is Fred James, recorded on all army records.

After being in the army a short time he was sent to France landing there last June. He saw active service on the Verdun front where he was gassed for which he claims he was in the Fort Benjamin Harrison hospital for treatment. He also stated that he had suffered much on account of nervous trouble caused by his nerves being afflicted while in the fighting.

When asked what caused him to leave the army hospital without permission he stated that he was anxious to get out of military service and was unable to do so on account of his being held for treatment. James was a member of Co. H, 145th Inf., 37th Div.

be sure that the subscription would be sold. He was told that while his district would sell more than its allotment of bonds, some other district possibly might not meet its obligation and it was only in that way that the county quota could be taken up. The oversubscription regulation does not apply to any single local district, but was made effective as to the entire nation.

Many of the solicitors have already been working in their districts and others will spend Sunday afternoon taking subscriptions. The task is to be completed by Monday night and it is expected that the total subscriptions reported at that time will show that Jackson county has again maintained her perfect war work record and has met its obligation to the nation in record time.

"Am I to consider myself under arrest, sir?"
"I wouldn't go so far as to say that. You just stick around here, that's all I got to say. If you're all right, we'll soon find it out. What's more, if you are all right you'll be willin' to stay. Do you get me?"
"I certainly do. And I can now assure you, Mr. Sheriff, that I'd like nothing better than to stick around here, as you put it. I'd like to help clear this matter up. In the meantime, you may readily find out who I am and why I am here by telegraphing to the mayor of New York city. This document, which experience has taught me to carry for just such an emergency as this, may have some weight with you." He opened his bill folder and drew forth a neatly creased sheet of paper. "Read it, please, and note the date, the signature, the official seal of the New York police department, and also the rather interesting silver print pasted in the lower left hand corner. I think you will agree that it is a good likeness of me. Each year I take the precaution of having myself certified by the police department at home before venturing into unknown and perhaps unfriendly communities."

"Yes," said the sheriff dubiously; "but how do I know it ain't a forgery?"

"You don't know, of course. But in case it shouldn't be a forgery and I am subjected to the indignity of arrest or even detention, you would have a nasty time defending yourself in a civil suit for damages. I shall remain here, as you suggest, but only for the purpose of aiding you in getting to the bottom of this affair."

Standing on Jim Conley's front porch a little after sunrise, Barnes made the following declaration:

"Everything goes to show that these men were up here for one of two reasons. They were either trying to prevent or to enact a crime. The latter is my belief. They were afraid of me. Why? Because they believed I was trailing them and likely to spoil their game. Gentlemen, those fellows were here for the purpose of robbing the place you call Green Fancy."

"What's that?" came a rich, mellow voice from the outskirts of the crowd. A man pushed his way through and confronted Barnes. He was a tall, good-looking fellow of thirty-five, and it was apparent that he had dressed in haste. "My name is O'Dowd, and I am a guest of Mr. Curtis at Green Fancy. Why do you think they meant to rob his place?"

"Well," began Barnes dryly, "it would seem that his place is the only one in the neighborhood that would bear robbing. My name is Barnes. Of course, Mr. O'Dowd, it is mere speculation on my part."

"But who shot the man?" demanded the Irishman. "He certainly wasn't winged by anyone from our place. Why, Lord love you, sir, there isn't a soul at Green Fancy who could shoot a thief if he saw one. This is Mr. De Soto, also a guest at Green Fancy. He will, I think, bear me out in upsetting your theory."

A second man approached, shaking his head vigorously. He was a thin, pale man with a singularly scholastic face. Quite an unprepossessing, unsanguinary person, thought Barnes.

"Mr. Curtis' chauffeur, I think it was, said the killing occurred just above this house," said he, visibly excited. "Green Fancy is at least a mile from here, isn't it? You don't shoot burglars a mile from the place they are planning to rob, do you?"

"I'll admit it's a bit out of reason," said Barnes. "The second man could only have been shot by some one who was lying in wait for him."

"Bedad," said O'Dowd, "it beats the devil. There's something big in this thing, Mr. Barnes—something a long shot bigger than any of us suspects."

"You'll find that it resolves itself into a problem for Washington to solve," said De Soto darkly. "Nothing local about it, take my word for it. These men were up to some international devilment. There'll be a stir in Washington over this, sure as anything."

"What time was it that you heard the shots up at Green Fancy?" ventured Barnes.

"Lord love you," cried O'Dowd, "we didn't hear a sound. Mr. Curtis, who has insomnia the worst way, poor devil, heard them and sent some one out to see what all the racket was about. The man, it seems, made such a devil of a racket when he came home with the news that the whole house was up in pajamas and peignoirs."

"I think I have a slight acquaintance with the chauffeur," said Barnes. "He gave me the most thrilling motor ride I've ever experienced. Gad, I'll never forget it."

The two men looked at him, plainly perplexed. "When was all this?" inquired De Soto.

"Early last evening. He picked up your latest guest at the corners, and she insisted in his driving me to the tavern before the storm broke. I've been terribly anxious about her. She must have been caught out in all that frightful—"

"What's this you are saying, Mr. Barnes?" cut in De Soto, frowning. "No guest arrived at Green Fancy last evening, nor was one expected."

Barnes stared. "Do you mean to say that she didn't get there, after all?"

"She? A woman, was it?" demanded O'Dowd. "Bedad, if she said she was coming to Green Fancy she was spoofing you. Are you sure it was old Peter who gave you that jolly ride?"

"No, I am not sure," said Barnes uneasily. "She was afoot, having walked from the station below. I met her at the corners and she asked me if I knew how far it was to Green Fancy, or something like that. Said she was going there. Then along came the automobile, rattling down this very road—an ancient Panhard driven by an old codger. She seemed to think it was all right to hop in and trust herself to him, although she'd never seen him before."

"The antique Panhard fits in all right," said O'Dowd, "but I'm hanged if the woman fits at all. No such person arrived at Green Fancy last night."

"Did you get a square look at the driver's face?" demanded De Soto.

"It was almost too dark to see, but he was old, hatchet-faced, and spoke with an accent."

"Then it couldn't have been Peter," said De Soto positively. "He's old, right enough, but he is as big as the side of a house, with a face like a full moon, and he is Yankee to his toes. By gad, Barnes, the plot thickens! A woman has been added to the mystery. Now, who the devil is she and what has become of her?"

Cucumbers.

Two to five hills of cucumbers usually will produce enough for the ordinary family. Cucumbers require considerable space, and for that reason they may not fit into the scheme of small gardens. It is possible, however, to plant the cucumbers along a fence or near a building and train the vines on a support of wire or strings so that they will not encumber the ground or occupy the space required by other crops.

In making the hills or the row in which the seeds are planted, a small amount of well-decayed manure should be mixed with the soil. A little fertilizer also helps, but it should be used carefully to prevent injury.—United States Department of Agriculture.
